

Scottsdale's Finest Art Galleries

2013

www.MainStreetArtGalleries.com

Whether you're a serious art collector or simply a casual browser, you won't want to miss The Galleries on Main Street in Old Town Scottsdale.

And with the work of more than 1,000 artists on display at 50 plus galleries, there's plenty to see – all conveniently located in a two-block area of downtown.

The internationally recognized Main Street has been home to some of America's premier galleries since 1965. Art collectors worldwide have made the area a source for original pieces of a myriad of genres. It's a place where emerging artists are discovered and established and renowned artists are regularly showcased.

Whatever you are looking for, you will probably find it here, whether it's modern, abstract, Western, or impressionism; art from Russia, South America, Asia, Europe, or the U.S.; or sculpture, jewelry, or paintings. Art lovers of all kinds have always found an abundant selection of exquisite originals at The Galleries on Main Street.

Thursday Night Art Walk

For more than 30 years, there's been an easy and fun way to take in all this art. Old Town Scottsdale's Main Street hosts one of the Southwest's great cultural events, "America's Original Artwalk." This grand open house for the galleries takes place Thursdays from 7pm-9pm. More than just an aficionado's perfect evening, the Art Walk is also a cherished community tradition that brings together residents and visitors. Wander into galleries at your own leisurely pace; stroll around a delightful street lined with famed restaurants, live-music venues, and more; and enjoy the horse drawn carriage rides and trolley rides that are often available.

It's "art-appreciation" taken to a whole new level.

Established in 1974, Joan Cawley Gallery features the "Best Of The West" in Contemporary Southwest Art with the belief that the West is not just a locale, but a way of life. This doctrine is reinforced by the vibrancy, energy and love of the land depicted in the gallery's body of work. Indicative of the region, the gallery is filled with an intoxicating combination of light, cactus bloom, desert wildlife, western nostalgia and Native American tradition. You will find a wide variety of media from gourds, feathers, wood and leather to clay, bronze, metal and textiles for the savvy collector.

Overland Gallery presents a series of solo exhibitions showcasing the work of five premier contemporary American realist painters: Gary Ernest Smith, Ed Mell, Martin Grelle, G. Russell Case, and Joseph Lorusso. The new year launches with a month-long exhibition of museum-quality Russian Impressionist paintings. The gallery has long been at the forefront of bringing the art of the period dating 1930 – 1980 to the United States, working directly with the artists or their descendants still living in Russia to discover hidden gems. Since 1983, our consultants have been providing unequalled service in assembling personal collections.

Pejman Gallery, established in 1988, recently opened its new showroom in the heart of Scottsdale's Main Street Arts District. The gallery primarily exhibits oil paintings by artist Bob Pejman, as well as original paintings by leading American and European artists, and the sculptures of Gaylord Ho. Pejman's captivating renderings of European and old-world vistas are internationally acclaimed. Pejman offers his works in two distinct styles: romantic realism and plein air palette knife.

Whether you're looking to start your collection with a piece by Pejman himself or a work by one of the many well-known artists in his Scottsdale gallery, you're bound to find something exquisite in the selection of timeless and classical American and European original oils.

Our collection of artwork is a diverse body of original one-of-a-kind paintings and sculptures that has been carefully selected and curated. We are a destination for seasoned and new collectors, specializing in classically inspired representational fine art by emerging, mid-career and established artists. Our selection of artists is based on the quality and originality of the work, and considerations of personal and artistic integrity.

Our primary goal is to provide high-quality, non-commercial art with individualized customer service. Our staff is knowledgeable and collector-friendly. They are highly trained to answer specific questions about works on view, artists represented and art in general.
