Jan 25 | 6:30 – 9:00 pm

With the return of the Gold Palette ArtWalk, “Art in Motion: A Video Experience,” the SGA looks to build on Scottsdale’s position as a leading proponent of video art. The digital video “revolution” of the 1990s has created wide access to sophisticated editing and control technology, allowing many artists to work with video and create interactive installations based on video. The SGA will curate and present video artists who will create a video trail of art projected on buildings, in the streets, within galleries and on store fronts. This experience will engage attendees as they become immersed in interactive video art works while the SGA and City of Scottsdale continue to be a forward programmer of this ever growing art niche.

NATIVE SPIRIT

March 1 | 6:30 – 9:00 pm

Arizona’s Southwest experience is enriched by the intrigue of ancient cultures of the Native Americans that inhabited this area long before modern man. Many beliefs and rituals are still practiced and are reflected in the Native arts produced today. In celebration of this rich history of culture and art, “Native Spirit” Gold Palette ArtWalk will host artists and celebrate the many themes of Native art, food and music. Please note the “Native Spirit” ArtWalk is a destination event that will coincide with the Heard Museum’s annual Indian Market in Phoenix. Tribes from around North America converge in the Southwest to share their diverse cultures.

"This studio/ gallery is nestled in a corridor with other renowned working artists who welcome clients into their studios. There is a spirit in my oil painting which describes busy moments of waiting, thinking and daydreaming in the bustle of a hurried world. The relationship between figures I leave unresolved, so that the viewers are left with something to think about as they become a participant in the scene." (L. Sandbulte) Leslie began painting in her youth, and after earning her BA and teaching credentials in visual arts she has taught art in schools, museum settings, and privately. Leslie's work is represented in several major galleries nationally and is collected internationally. This work is a must see!

DIAMOND BLOOM

Delicately emerging from the landscape, Diamond Bloom serves as an icon marking the southern edge of Scottsdale's arts district. Reminiscent of a cactus flower, the sculpture's radiant changing qualities of light, shadow, and color contribute to its dynamic botanical form. Two upward sweeping arcs converge above creating a passageway to the formal entrance of Western Spirit: Scottsdale's Museum of the West. The brass panels, dichroic glass fins, and colored lights are strategically placed to produce a luminous colorplay both day and night.

HORSESHOE FALLS

This may be Arizona's only non-equestrian equestrian monument! The iconic shape of the horseshoe representing the strength and stability of the West is the central form of this downtown rest stop.

Tall pillars made of stacked horseshoes stand within a horseshoe-shaped concrete seat wall. Dense fog periodically rises from a bed of river rock and cools the space for passing pedestrians and cyclists taking a moment to pause.

JACK KNIFE

Ed Mell is one of Arizona's premier artists. Jack Knife was his first large-scale sculpture. The bronze stands over eight feet high on its base and is modeled after Scottsdale's official city seal, a rider astride a bucking horse.

"Jack Knife has a reverence for the Old West. It is not traditional, but yet it has a traditional theme. The angularity accelerates the power and energy of the rider and horse, more than accurate depiction." –Ed Mell
